WHERE DREAMS TAKE SHAPE

When real estate industry leaders from diverse backgrounds come together, something remarkable happens.

Their experience-driven foundation gives them freedom to do something most developers can't: dream. To stand on an empty plot of land and imagine the view from the rooftop terrace, envision the homeowner's commute to work, and embody raising a family in the area.

What's even more remarkable is that these visions aren't trivial – they're about making dreams more attainable and ensuring livable and purposeful homes are within reach for real, everyday Canadians.

A LOT OF GROWTH

Welcome to St. Catharines: a vibrant community going through an accelerated period of cultural renaissance. With a mix of boutiques and chain stores, and a thriving arts and entertainment scene supported by the 95,000-square-foot FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre and Meridian Centre, St. Catharines is equal parts charming and dynamic.

A LOT OF CONNECTIVITY

Everything you could want is easily within reach, both near and far. Downtown St. Catharines is just a four-minute drive from home, while Brock University is only seven minutes away. Plus, you're a short drive from multiple wineries that took home over 170 medals in 2022. Looking to venture further? Highway 406 is a two-minute drive, St. Catharines GO Station is a five-minute drive, and downtown Hamilton is just 43 minutes away.

But it doesn't stop there. Hoverlink Ontario – the first proposed modern hovercraft transit service in North America – offers affordable rides from St. Catharines to downtown Toronto in just 30 minutes.
